

AUTOMATIC COOKING PLATES

Precise in temperature, timeless, Made in Germany

ROMMELSBACHER

These superior cooking plates with unique 2-shell casing offer an easy-care, robust surface thanks to the fire enamelling. These classics cut a fine figure everywhere – whether as an additional appliance in the kitchen or as a fully-fledged cooking facility in the office or holiday flat. This series, manufactured in Germany, offers the only true automatic cooking plates that meet the standards! The patented thermostat system provides for highest temperature accuracy. The automatic cooking system, large, well-arranged pilot lamps and an overheating protection offer high ease of use and safety. The durable cast iron heating plates are perfectly suitable for all kinds of cooking vessels; the versions with express heating plate (red dot) ensure a very short heating-up time. Whether single or double cooking plate - this line is always the right choice for discerning customers.
