

Ceran® SINGLE COOKING PLATE

2-circuit HiLight®

Perfection "Made in Germany"!

ROMMELSBACHER

A "HiLight" of German make, standing out by its elegant design and high-end technology. Whether used as additional appliance in the kitchen or as a mobile cooking facility in offices, holiday flats or at the table – this 2-circuit cooking plate impresses by its high utility value and the superior materials. The easy-care stainless steel casing and the original Schott Ceran® cooking surface offer high standards. The 2-circuit solution allows using either the 140 mm Ø heating zone or an extra-large zone of 210 mm Ø. The temperature can be adjusted via an infinitely variable energy regulator; the pilot lamp and the residual heat indicator ensure perfect safety in operation. A very special cooking plate, meeting high-end demands!
