

COFFEE GRINDER

with blade

For a flavourful cup of coffee any time

ROMMELSBACHER

A coffee grinder with powerful blade – perfect for quickly making a good cup of coffee with freshly ground powder. The casing and the blade of this chic appliance are made of superior stainless steel and are thus robust and easy to clean. The coffee beans are quickly processed by the 2-winged blade until the desired grinding degree is reached. The grinding time can be adjusted individually by pressing down the casing cover. Furthermore, this coffee grinder cannot only be used for grinding coffee beans, but also dried spicery like e. g. pepper, coriander, rosemary, caraway or sugar can be ground. Another advantage with respect to its is convenient handling is its integrated cord take-up which stores the cord not in use.
